Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Friday 16 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Fine and dry for many, some rain in the northwest.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any isolated light showers soon fading, then most areas dry with clear periods, allowing another frost and also a few mist or fog patches to develop later. Breezy and cloudier in the far north-west with some rain or drizzle.

Saturday:
Dry with sunny periods for most areas, although cloud thickening in the north-west to bring outbreaks of rain to Northern Ireland and north-west Scotland during the evening.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Fine and dry for much of England and Wales with overnight frost and a few early fog patches. Scotland and Northern Ireland cloudier with rain at times.
